2. T. parvus, n. sp. (Plate XIII. figs. 185, 186.)

Female, length $\frac{1}{45}''$, breadth $\frac{1}{25}''$.

External Characters.—Body tapering at both extremities, especially at posterior, commencing behind vulva. Head truncate, naked. Striae of integument imperceptible.

Pharyngeal cavity indistinct. Oesophagus about $\frac{1}{7}$th of total length. Intestine sparingly covered with hepatic particles. Anus $\frac{1}{345}''$ from posterior extremity. Vulva posterior to middle of body. Ocelli . . . . . .

Male, not seen.

Hab. Small green weed from tide-pools, Falmouth.

186. Posterior extremity of female.